Maximize Potential with Our Dedicated Student and Parent Section

For Parents:

The new parent section in our Help Center is designed to give you the knowledge to facilitate your child's success in their Lincoln Learning courses. Get the support and resources you need to be their pillar throughout their academic years.

For Students:

The new student section is where your student will find all the necessary resources to excel in Lincoln Learning courses. From starting new courses to understanding assessments, keeping track of their grades, and making the most of Help Center Resources, everything they need is here. Our comprehensive set of tools and features is tailored to help you succeed.

Online Homeschool Student Tip: Eliminate Distractions

Ever noticed how a tidy workspace sets the perfect study stage? Align your resources, pocket those devices, and watch your productivity soar!

- Carefully organize your study space, ensuring everything you need is within reach, but nothing unnecessary catches your eye.
- Relocate your digital devices to a "distraction-free zone."
- Negotiate with your cravings that learning time is not snack time.
